

4C Kong Nok Huan Michael

The Missing Tortoise

Last Saturday, Alice and her mum went to a pet shop to buy a tortoise for Alice's birthday. Alice was very joyful. She said, 'Thank you, Mum!' She called the tortoise 'Mimi'. The tortoise was cute and lovely. It had a long neck. Mimi's tank was colourful. There were two big stones and some seaweed. It was in the living room. The tortoise liked climbing. Alice liked Mimi.

Alice went home after school but she did not see her tortoise. She looked for it everywhere but she still could not find it. She asked her parents to help her.

Even Alice's parents could not find Mimi. She found a suspicious stone. 'Were there three stones before?' she asked. The tortoise was hurt because it climbed up the stacks of stones and fell over behind the stones. She would never put too many stones in the tank again.