

6D Hou Yan Yu

Anne of Green Gables

"Anne of Green Gables" was written by Lucy Maud Montgomery from Canada. This book is about Marilla and her brother Matthew, who wanted to adopt a boy to help them with the farm work. When Matthew went to the railway station to pick up the boy, to his surprise, there was only a girl named Anne waiting for him! The kind hearted Matthew could do nothing but to take her to his home - Green Gables. Anne was an 11-year-old girl who was odd and always liked daydreaming. At first, they decided to send her back to the orphanage, but then they changed their mind and kept her.

Matthew and Marilla gave Anne a home and treated her well. They taught her how to be a good girl and also sent her to school to study. Anne was very hard-working and intelligent so she became one of the top students. Anne was adorable, talkative and outgoing soon everyone liked her. During her stay at Green Gables, she met a girl called Diana and they became good friends. After years of hard-working, she gained an award which meant she could go to college for free. However, something sad happened - Matthew died because of heart stoke. Anne was heartbroken and she decided not to go to college. Instead, she worked as a teacher at Avonlea because she wanted to accompany and comfort Marilla.

I like this book very much. Whenever I read it, it makes me feel warm and touched. Even though Anne was an orphan, Marilla and Matthew loved her deeply. They regarded her as their own. Anne also loved Marilla and Matthew as well as Green Gables. They gave her the first real home. Although Anne was so eager to go to college, she gave up because she loved Marilla so much. She did not want Marilla to be alone after Matthew's death. This story shows the genuine love within family. After reading this book, I feel so lucky that my family love me so much, and I will cherish the love from my family forever!