The Missing Tortoise

Last Sunday, Alice and her mom went to a pet shop in Kowloon Tong by MTR. They bought a small tortoise because Alice won a Maths competition. Alice felt excited. She said 'Thank you, mom!'

Alice named it Mimi. Mimi was small, grey and had a grey hard shell. Its tank had a tunnel, sand and water. It was in the living room. It liked eating lettuce and sleeping all the time. Alice liked it. She took care of Mimi every day.

After school, Alice was upset because she couldn't see Mimi. She looked into the bathroom, kitchen and the bathroom. She asked her mom to help her find Mimi.

Mimi was in the bathroom. The tank was broken and it got out. Luckily, it was not hurt or scared. But it was a stressful day! Next time, Alice will change Mimi's tank to a better one.
